Attendance at Providence Immense on Closing Day.

Judges Suspend R. A. Smith,
Driver of Sweet Marie.

HIS DRIVING SHADY.

The Most Important Day's Race
Was the 2:06 Trot.

McKinley the Winner in Best
Time of the Year.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 2.—The Grand Circuit meeting at Narragansett park closed Friday afternoon with four well contested races. The attendance was the largest of any meeting on the circuit this season. At the conclusion of the day's sport the judges suspended R. A. Smith, who was taken from behind Sweet Marie in the Roger Williams race of last Wednesday, for the rest of the season. To Alta McDonald, who was substituted and who eventually won the race, was awarded the sum of $1,000, the same to be taken from the winnings of the mare.

The most important racing of the day was the 2:06 trot. Ferenzo was an even choice to win, and won the first heat easily. Boone then relinquished his seat behind McKinley in favor of Alta McDonald, who in hot finishes, captured the next two heats and the race in the second heat equaled the best trotting time in a race of the year (2:06 1/4) made by Sweet Marie. The time of the race established a new three-heat record for the season of 1904, formerly held by Ozymandias.

Zambia was picked to win the 2:15 trot, but at the post Noretta bumped into public favor, closing even against the field. The heats were distributed among the four horses entered until Kyrrille finally captured the seventh heat and the race.

Daybook, the favorite, won the 2:16 pace easily. In the 2:10 pace Redbird sold even up and won in straight heats.

JUST LIKE A BABY.

How Jeff Handled Munroe in the Ring at Frisco.

New York Sept. 2.—In answer to a telegram Jack Munroe tells a few interesting things about his fight with Champion Jeffries the other night.

"He is the greatest fighter in the world," says Munroe. "I don't think there is a chance of him ever losing the title in the ring. His strength, speed and immense bulk offset whatever the other man has. He is hardly a chance in a hundred of getting an even break with him. His powerful arms beat down your defense, and all that you have to do is to keep your feet under the first punch. I can't remember much after the first punch he caught me. I remember that we were closing in on each other and I saw his left foot for what I thought was my body. He made a funny switch on it and landed upon my cheek. I was dazed but did not fall until he had hit me a second time. The ring seemed full of Jeffries and I hardly got upon my feet before he battered me to the floor again. There seemed to be no chance to show my legs. I could do as was to cover up the best I could. Nothing was clear to me; all was a haze and I can't even remember the bell ringing for the final round. I can remember being helped up once from my chair, but after that I seemed to be moving around in the dark. My body ached, there was no strength in me and I was like a baby in his hands.

There are no three men in the ring today who could handle Jeffries in one fight. If there are I have never seen them."

Coach Warner Reaches Cornell.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Head Coach Glenn S. Warner, of the Cornell varsity football team, who was called from Carlisle to take charge of the baseball and basketball teams for the next three years, has arrived. He will at once issue a call for candidates to report at Perry field for active work September 15. Backed football and men will begin practice at that time, and train gradually.

Racing at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Sept. 2.—Joe Graham, backed from 30 to 1 to 10 to 1, was the medium of a heavy play in the second race at the fair grounds. His victory gave the rink a severe scorching. In some books Graham was as good as 1 to 10 on the opening betting. Responsive was backed from 10 to 1 to 11 to 2 in the fourth, but finished in the ruck.

Cincinnati Signs Overall.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 2.—Ted Sullivan has picked up Orvie Overall, the big pitcher of the Tacoma team. Overall has everything a twirler should have, is over 6 feet and weighs 200. Overall was formerly one of the university of California's greatest football players.

Match for Hanlon.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 2.—Eddie Hanlon, who left for New York Friday, has practically been matched with Pease McGovern of Philadelphia. It is probable that Kid McCoy and Jack "Twin" Sullivan will meet at Los Angeles. The date has not yet been set.

A Match for Fitz.

Atlantic City, Sept. 2.—Bob Fitzsimmons will turn out five horses once in a match for $200 a side with Hugh Genoe, a local blacksmith. The match at Atlantic City will be decided some day next week. The winner will donate the purse to a local charitable institution.

Winfield Races Close.

Winfield, Kas., Sept. 2.—The Cowley county fair closed with a good attendance. Six horses started in the 2:35 pace, which went to Monkey Mack in four heats. Walter J., owned by Walter Jarvis, of Winfield, won the first heat in 2:17 1/2. Monkey Mack's best time was 2:20 1/4. The other starters were Black Roy, Minnie Wile, Kay and Unsich, Honest Tom, Vendetta, Raybold and Venesees started in the 2:30 trot, Honest Tom winning in straight heats. His best time was 2:23 1/2.

BEST BID GETS RHEINSCHILD.

Michigan and Wisconsin Said to Be Offering Good Inducements.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 2.—If the University of Michigan meets the remunerative offer of the University of Wisconsin, Rheinschild will star tackle on last year's Los Angeles high school football team, will go to Ann Arbor. If the Badger school outbids its rival Rheinschild will go to Madison. Rheinschild weighs 190 pounds and is considered the best academic football player in south California. Some weeks ago he received a letter from Manager Bair of Michigan offering to pay all training expenses and later received an offer of a remunerative position in Ann Arbor. Rheinschild almost decided to accept when the Wisconsin manager promised him a position at the state capitol, two hours' work a day at $80 a month. All traveling expense were to be paid by the manager and even in case the player did not make the varsity eleven the position was to be his.

At Kansas City he is to hear from Bair. If the latter equals Wisconsin's offer he gets the player. If not, Rheinschild will join the Badger squad.

University of Southern California in Los Angeles also made a bid for Rheinschild's services.

Racing at New York.

New York, Sept. 2.—Broomstick, which was defeated last week by Molly Brant, turned the tables at Sheepshead Bay Friday afternoon. The son of Ben Brush had a goodly pull in the weights, which told at the finish and he won with a length and a half. The heats were distributed among the four horses entered until Kyrrille finally captured the seventh heat and the race.

Daybook, the favorite, won the 2:16 pace easily. In the 2:10 pace Redbird sold even up and won in straight heats.

BAD DAY FOR NELSON.

Young Pitcher Lost Head in Sixth Inning.

Abbott's Batting and Howie's
Fielding Features.

The whole aggregation of Saints ought to be arrested for murder in the first degree for beating "Fatty" Nelson to death, on Friday afternoon, after the chubby little Oriole Cupid had even made himself believe that he held the Celestials in the hollow of his hand, and would "show them up." In five innings he gave them but three hits, and two of these were very, very scratchy. In that time he issued the wing-clipped. With the exception of the first inning it was all "one, two, three" order, and but one man got to third base, and he stole his way there from the initial station. Ach Louie! aber he got his hoofs tangled up in the stirrups of the balloon in the seventh, and slipped. At the half-dozen mark on the program seven big holes were kicked into the warming pan, and then in the ninth, before the finale, six more cleaned their shoes on the gutta-percha. The records won't deny this: Topeka 13, Leavenworth 0.

Mr. Nelson, the Pitcher, During the Winding Process.

Fourteen safe ones, all in one day, did those Saints make! Just sit down and let that seep into your epidermis and you will be a different person. You yourself, grow monstrous, and be happy, for certainly Leavenworth sent a fatted calf.

When Nickell Hits the Ball.

Denver Tom Hughes just added an extra bunch to his laurel wreath. He presided over the square in the middle of the field like the New York Sun over the greatest baseball writer in the west. The yellow-legs could not any more see the drift of Tom's benedictions, than they could the home-plate.

Here are the data for the eighth when you get through with the sixth. Olson hit safely. Brown did likewise. Hughes got hit. Howie slammed a safe one. Abbott and McDill both played frumps with more singles. Schrant closed the sad matinee with a three-sacker.

The Saints went into the fracas with a crippled team. Cole was nursing his bruised finger which has become infected. Hurlbert was sick. Eddie McDill played the center garden and Howie played in the left weep patch. This cherubic ladies' favorite got two hits, six put outs and one assist, the latter effective when he plucked the plate killing an attempt to beat his throw-in. If he always plays like that he doesn't need to be a pitcher.

The general feature, however, was the batting of Abbott. A three-bagger, a two-bagger and two singles were his credit marks in that line. His game at first was faultless.

Gus Abbe was still sick and could not umpire. Harry LaFrance, who broke his leg early in the season while with the Saints, happened to be at the game and he was called upon to handle the indicator. In the fifth inning the wing-clipped commenced to "bawl him out" because of some questionable ball and strike decisions. Harry accordingly became angry and quit. Bill Rapps and Nick Carter then took up "the man's burden." They escaped with their lives and most of their clothing.
